

For our partner - one of European leaders in financial services we are looking for candidates willing to expand their career in sales (financial products) in various locations in the Czech Republic.

Sales representative (agent contract model) (male/female)

Responsibilities:

1. Selling and up-selling financial products to small and medium businesses in a defined region

Successful candidate should:

1. be self-starter and goal oriented individuals
2. be independent
3. have communicative command of English
4. have an university degree (an asset)

Experience in sales positions, especially in business-to-business and/or financial sector would be a strong asset.

Benefits:

- 1. very attractive remuneration system
- 2. independence (agent contract)
3. training package and support
4. competitive product
5. possibility to grow with the company in the market

Should you be interested – please submit your CV (in English or Czech) to cv@dobrefinanse.net

Please express the personal data processing consent in the documents.